The roots of Murooj

Close to Ibn Battuta Mall and Sheikh Zayed Road is a flourishing community within a sought-after neighbourhood.

The rich foundations of Nakheel's Al Furjan master development have continued to help the neighbourhood grow since its launch in 2007.

Now home to top schools, popular community centres, leisure facilities including a community club, and its very own metro station, Al Furjan has it all.

Fourteen years on since homes here sold out in a single week, a new opportunity is budding.

Designed to offer the luxury of space, the ground floor features a maid's room, powder room and guest bedroom with en-suite bathroom. The first floor hosts a large family room with pantry and study room with each bedroom accompanied by an en-suite bathroom. The master bedroom boasts a walk-in closet and a five-fixture bathroom while every home comes with a large shaded balcony overlooking the rear garden where a swimming pool is waiting to cool you down.
